Dear Russ—

I've cut these pages from Eleanor's European Diary - they deal with Dumfries - see paste them back in the book when you don finishes with them. To copy them seemed a task - I'm a lazy person — besides — What happens to the book once I'm not here? Her reactions were quite interesting. I think you — & your Son will enjoy them — tell him's not ready, necessary that's for them back.

Regards! Jo
